14 References to sexuality or nudity

(page3) Cat distrusts Katniss because she tried to drown it when it was young.

(page10) Katniss describing Gale at school says you can hear the girls whispering about him as he walks by and you can tell they want him.

(page11) Wild dog meat is put in soup also no one where they live would turn up their nose at a good leg of wild dog.

(page17) Bullet in the head is a much better way to die than starving.

(page19) The real message is clear "look how we take your children and sacrifice them and there's nothing you can do. If you lift a finger we will destroy every last one of you. Just as we did in district 13."

(page26) Having lost her dad in a mine explosion 5 years prior. She went through a lot of emotional turmoil. She would frequently ask "where had he gone" but there was never any answer- denotes a Godless existence.

(page32) Reference to killing someone. Slitting their throat. Said with humor.

(page39) Talk between Katniss and Gale regarding past Hunger Games and all the death involved. Bludgeoning death, snake bites, freezing to death and dying of thirst. Quiet, bloodless deaths.

(page40) Gale tells Katniss she's a great hunter and to forget she has to kill people. Think of them as animals.

(page41) Talks about a girl who put on an act of being helpless but turned out she was a vicious killer.

(page48) References Katniss' possibility of seeing an older drunken man naked in the shower.

(page55) Katniss the pretty 16 year old girl mentions the word nudity to describe how she doesn't want to dress for the games.

(page55) A character walks by uttering obscenities. No words are mentioned. Lets reader use imagination throughout at least at first.56pages Haymitch has won the Hunger Games in the past for district 12 but he is an embarrassment everywhere he goes because he is the town drunk.

(page62) Katniss is nude in front of one man and two women as they have been removing all the hair from her body except the hair on top of her head. And they have tweezed her brows.

(page64) Male stylist circles Katniss while she stands nude before him. She resists the urge to cross her arms over her chest. (So she is nude in front of a man but does not show modesty)

(page66) Lots of talk about past nude tributes or tributes in skimpy clothes. Katniss fears she will appear nude for the games.

(page82) a boys death is recounted by Katniss.

Up to page 85 repeated theme or mentioning of people enjoying watching other people die.

(page143) Cannibalism is mentioned

(page145) A male helps dress Katniss in her undergarments.

(page177) Another reference to herself, Katniss being stark naked

The actual deaths are not described in vivid details but you do not have any doubts people are dying.

(page190 & 191) Describe in detail 2 girls dying by genetically modified wasps.

(page219) Describes girl being blown to bits.

(page233) Boy is shot in the neck with bow and arrow. He pulls it out cutting his life in half and drowns in his own blood.

(page238) Katniss thinks of killing anyone that crosses paths with her now. Without emotion for revenge.

(page254) Another reference to being naked. Not being any big deal in the arena.

(page256) Another reference to nudity. How it doesn't bother her little sister and mother but makes her uncomfortable.

(page258) Peeta doesn't mind if Katniss sees him with his shorts off but she turns her back on him.

(page288) Talking about the people back home watching the games on TV cheering them on and willing them to come home but never any mention of anyone praying.

(page309) Katniss thinks a thank you to a fall "friend" Thresh. She thinks about helping his family in some way. It's the closest thing to a prayer I've read buy she thinks it to herself and doesn't 'pray' it to anyone.

(page340) Katniss reference the sky as the "heavens". It's the 1st "religious" reference all the book.

(page344) A mock suicide attempt is made.

(page353) Katniss is naked again

(Page354) Katniss is given a dress by Cinna that adds padding to the breasts and gives her curves.
